

Librarian's Corner

Kolter Elementary ♦ Cynthia Oubre, Librarian ♦ May 2015 Vol 9

Notes from the Librarian

Summer time and the living is easy... so is reading!

There is a place that makes no demands and costs no money to visit. Peace and quiet are the rules, and there are endless possibilities to be entertained and to explore. Visit your public library and relax and unwind reading some good books during your summer break.

The HISD Summer Reading program challenges students to read a minimum of five books during the summer. Details on Kolter's 2015 Summer Reading Program will kickoff the week of May 11th.

The library will close for the 2014-15 school year beginning May 18 for inventory. ALL books need to be returned by Friday, May 15, 2015. Overdue letters going home in May 5th Tuesday folders. Payment for overdue books/lost books/or damaged books must be paid before students can participate in end of school year activities.

Places to find lost books:

- *In the truck of the car
- *In the other car
- *In the garage
- *In your backpack
- *In your siblings backpack
- *On your bedroom bookshelf
- *Between the sheets at the foot of your bed

These are just a few places you can look. Check out the site here for more places.

Last and final call for students who have not picked up their 2014 summer reading projects. Projects left over will be discarded.

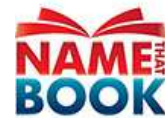

Don't forget about accessing myON during your summer reading. myON offers free access to enhanced digital books with support tools such as recorded audio, text highlighting and an embedded dictionary to support readers at all levels. This reading platform is available through August 31, 2015.

SchoolStore.com

Thank you, parents, students, and family members who participated in our first year schoolstore.com campaign.

The School Store site will remain open for shopping. We have once again signed up for next school year. Also, May 15 is the drawing for a winning school to receive a $100,000 playground, $10,000 for one family and $5,000 for one teacher's classroom.

2015-2016

Are you interested in joining a winning team of readers? Grades K-5 have a limited number of openings for some highly motivated readers who love to read and are eager for a book contest challenge. If interested, please request an application from Ms. Oubre.
